UCONN Real Estate Center Director Announced

The Center for Real Estate and Urban Economic Studies (CREUES) is pleased to announce that David Wharmby has been hired to be the next Director for the Real Estate Center and Extension Instructor of Finance. David will be responsible for the administration and outreach activities of CREUES. He will start on September 9, 2022.

David has had a distinguished career, most recently as a Managing Director at Barings (formerly Cornerstone), where he worked for 18 years. David earned an MBA and undergraduate degree in real estate, from UCONN.

UCONN Real Estate Center DCP Liaison Announced

Attorney Kristen Haseney has been hired as an “extension” faculty member in the finance department at the UCONN School of Business. Among her responsibilities will be the role of the Department of Consumer Protection liaison.

Kristen joins us from her role as a Senior Associate Counsel at the Connecticut Association of REALTORS®, where she has worked since 2014. She has been certified to teach the 2018-2020 Continuing Education required anti-discrimination and fair housing course, and certified to train other trainers to teach this course. Kristen has been serving on the DCP Education Committee for the Mandatory Licensing Course, and on the Committee on Real Estate Teams, at various times since 2018.

Kristen is also currently the Vice Chair of the Fair Housing Association of Connecticut, and a member of the Partnership for Strong Communities Affordable Housing Steering Committee. She is a graduate of Smith College (undergraduate) and Western New England University School of Law.

Citizens Bank Internship Highlight

Patrick Shea is a senior, pursuing a degree in Real Estate and Urban Economics with a minor in Digital Marketing and Analytics. This summer, Patrick worked at Citizens Bank with the Property Strategy and Execution team in the Johnston, RI office.

Over the course of his role, Patrick was responsible for presenting strategic analysis on existing and potential retail locations. He assisted the workplace strategy team where he reviewed cost savings exercises for office locations obtained from recent acquisitions and was responsible for regulatory compliance tracking for leasing activities. Patrick also performed ad hoc data analysis for various groups within the Real Estate Department.

Patrick is happy to be back on campus applying what he learned during his role to the classroom.
